WATCH YOUR BACK, MATES!

Een lied voor Maarten, onze gids door Australië

INTRO

Gather round, mates... this is a true story...

WOO... SHAAAAAA!

COUPLET 1

Twenty-two strangers flew in from the cold
Sydney was shining, the Blue Mountains old
Martin said “no worries” and counted us twice
’Cause losing a tourist down here isn’t nice

REFREIN

WOO... SHAAAAAA!

Down Under we go and we’re having a blast
Stay close to the group and don’t walk in last
G’day mate, no worries, but watch your back

WOO... SHAAAAAA!

COUPLET 2

We squeezed in a minibus, knees in our face
The aircon was dying, no air and no space
We moaned and we groaned, so Martin got tough
And found us a bus that was more than enough

ECHO

Hello? (hello... hello... hello...)
Is anybody back there? (there... there... there...)
Better not sit in the back... (back... back... back...)

COUPLET 3

Tassie gave wombats with square little poo
Cradle in sunshine, Wineglass Bay blue
Then the bus went quiet, our guide dimmed the light
And told us the tale of that cold Tassie night

HET VERHAAL

Eighteen twenty-two... eight convicts ran free...
No food in the bush... as far as you could see...
And one by one... the group got thin...
Only Alexander Pearce came walking back in...
With an axe in his hand... and a very full belly...

WOO... SHAAAAAAAAA!

REFREIN

WOO... SHAAAAAA!

Down Under we go and we're having a blast
Stay close to the group and don't walk in last
G'day mate, no worries, but watch your back

WOO... SHAAAAAA!

COUPLET 4

Kangaroos in Halls Gap, koalas up high
Twelve Apostles, only eight, don't ask us why
Camel on the barbie, Uluru glowing red
We're still counting heads before we go to bed

SLOTREFREIN

WOO... SHAAAAAA!

Martin, oh Martin, you're a legend, mate
You led us Down Under and kept us all straight
You counted us daily, not one on a plate

WOO... SHAAAAAA!

SLOT

Sleep tight, mates...

WOO... SHAAAAAA...

Met dank van de hele groep. Woo... shaaa!
